Synopsis : Three British teenage girls go on a rites-of-passage holiday - drinking, clubbing and hooking up, in what should be the best summer of their lives. At the same time, the ride-or-die trio find themselves navigating the complexities of sex, which includes self-discovery, first sexual experiences, and the importance of consent. In particular, 17-year-old Tara hopes to lose her virginity and has her eyes on the boy from the neighbouring hotel room. However, things do not go according to plan during the course of the week.

Director's Biography : Molly Manning Walker is originally trained as a Cinematographer. In 2019, she graduated from the NFTS with an MA in Cinematography. Her graduation film, November 1st, took Bronze at the Student Academy Awards and was long-listed for a BAFTA. It was also in competition at Camerimage - the world's leading cinematography festival. Molly's directing debut was the short film Good Thanks, You?. The film premiered at Semaine De la Critique Cannes and went on to play at many festivals.
