

Cinema International

Country : France

L ile rouge

Red Island

2023 / Colour / 116 minutes / French

Director : Robin Campillo

Producer : Marie Ange Luciani

Cinematographer : Jeanne Lapoirie

Editor : Robin Campillo, Anita Roth, Stephanie Leger

Music : Arnaud Rebotini

Cast : Nadia Tereszkievicz, Quim Gutierrez, Charlie Vauselle Amely Rakotoarimalala

Synopsis : Thomas, a 10 year old boy, lives in a French military base in Madagascar. His parents and their circle gradually become aware of both territorial and sexual politics, while finding an outlet for his imagination in the exploits of crimebuster Fantomette.

Director's Biography : Robin Campillo, born on 16 August 1962, is a French screenwriter, editor and film director. He is known for his work on films such as The Class (2008), Heading South (2005), the French zombie film They Came Back (2004), Eastern Boys (2013), and Time Out (2001). The latter was placed at ninety-nine on Slant Magazine's best films of the 2000s, number nine of The Guardian's Best Films of the noughties, and number eleven at The A.V. Club's top fifty films of the 2000s. In 2017, he released 120 BPM (Beats per Minute) which received mass acclaim and went on to garner many awards, including the Grand Prix and 2017 Cesar Award for Best Film.