Synopsis : Carmen, a former sex worker in her twilight years, secretly pimps her mentally-challenged grand-daughter, Jonah, to online pedophiles. The police eventually rescued Jonah and arrest Carmen. A family of sex workers is entangled with the police's web of abuse. It is within this context that the story unfolds. We see a glimpse of a family clinging on whatever dignity is left to them.

Director's Biography : Multi-awarded Filipino film director Joel Lamangan studied film and theatre at schools in the Philippines and abroad. He acted and directed for stage and television, then took screen roles, before opting for film direction.
