Synopsis : Bijoyar Pore (Autumn Flies) is a poignant tale of love, family bonds and reunion during Durga Puja. Ananda and Alokanda eagerly anticipate their family's annual gathering. This year, their daughter Mrinmoyee visits with her husband Mizanoor for the first time since her separation from the family. As the festival nears it's end, the sons plan to convert the family home without considering their parents' feelings. On Bijoya day, tragedy strikes when Ananda passes away. Aloka conceals the news, creating an illusion of his presence to unite the family. Bijoyar Pore explores complex family dynamics and serves as a reminder to cherish the loved ones.

Director's Biography : An advertising film maker, production designer and TV host, Abhijit Sridas has made his debut with Bijoyar Pore.
