Synopsis : Bhutnath, an orphan, comes to serve as a domestic help for the local Ganguly family, which hosts the biggest Durga Puja in the village. Bhuto gradually realises that most of the family members do not really get along with each other. Especially, there is an evident rift between Rinku, the wife of the second son, and Tina, the youngest daughter of the family. Rinku befriends Bhuto and they develop a sweet bond. Bhuto also comes across an unnamed lady with a controversial past who was affectionate towards the orphan. Gradually their bond strengthens and Bhuto starts to meet her every day, the consequences of which is what the film is all about.
