Synopsis : A rancher, Silva rides a horse across the desert that separates him from Bitter Creek. He comes to visit Sheriff Jake. Twenty-five years earlier, both the sheriff and Silva, worked together as hired gunmen. Silva visits him with the excuse of reuniting with his friend from his youth. They do celebrate their meeting, but Sheriff Jake suspects Silva of having other intentions behind his trip.

Director's Biography : Pedro Almodovar, born on 25 September 1949, is a Spanish film director and screenwriter. His films are marked by melodrama, irreverent humour, bold colour, glossy décor, quotations from popular culture, and complex narratives. Desire, LGBT issues, passion, family, and identity are Almodóvar's most prevalent subjects in his films. Acclaimed as one of the internationally successful Spanish filmmakers, Almodóvar and his films have gained worldwide interest and have developed a cult following. He won an Oscar for Best Foreign Language Film Women on the Verge of a Nervous Breakdown (1988) and Best Screenplay for Talk To Her (2002). He won Best Director at Cannes for All About My Mother (1999).
