

Unheard India (Rare Languages)

Language : Rabha

The Missing Boy

The Missing Boy
2023 / Colour / 74 minutes

Director : Malay Kumar Roy
Producer : Malay Kumar Roy
Cinematographer : Bipul das
Editor : Dipak Manda
Music : Bikash Baruah

Synopsis : Anubhav is a 11 year old child from well-to-do family living in Guwahati. His father Debajit and mother Rima are extremely occupied with their business. Quite often Anubhav spends time alone at home. Little Anubhav begins to skip school. One day, Debajit is informed by the school principal about the frequent absence of Anubhav from class. He is annoyed with Anubhav and beats him up badly. As a result, Anubhav run away from home. He takes shelter in a Rabha family. Meanwhile Debajit puts out an advertisement in the newspaper with a big photograph of Anubhav, announcing a huge reward.

Director's Biography : Malay Kumar Roy was born and brought up in Guwahati (Assam), India. He began his career in Assam Film Industry and also Mumbai and Kolkata. He worked in five Assamese films as an assistant and in eight films as a chief assistant director. He has done many TV serials for Guwahati Doordarshan. He also worked in a Rabha language film and two Bengali films as a chief assistant director. He has worked with renowned directors, namely Jhanu Baruah and Shiva Prasad Thakur. The Missing Boy is his directorial debut.