

Kurdish Cinema (In Search of Identity)

Country : Turkey

Bir Kar Tanesinin Omru

The Life of a Snowflake

2022 / Colour / 109 minutes / Turkish-Kurdish

Director : Kazim Oz

Producer : Kazim Oz

Cinematographer : Orcun Ozkilinc

Editor : Kazim Oz, Bugra Dedeoglu

Music : Mustafa Biber

Cast : Sema Gultekin, Ismail Zagros, Munircan Cindoruk, Cezmi Baskin, Omur Arpaci

Synopsis : Amid heavy snowfall in the Turkish city of Trabzon, two youngsters meet for the first time at a bus stop, and start meeting every day afterwards, skipping classes. But Miase is the daughter of a local Turkish family, while Adar is the son of a Kurdish family from Hakkari, a city near Iraq border. Their love story continues for a month, before Adar suddenly disappears. Miase hits the road to find him.

Director's Biography : Born in 1973 in Turkey, Kazim Öz is a celebrated and award-winning Kurdish filmmaker and producer best known for his movies such as Fotograf (The Photograph, 2003), Once Upon a Time (2014), Zer (2017) and Elif Ana (2022). He started his career in 1992 as an actor and subsequently started making documentaries and feature-length films.