

Centenary Tribute

Country : India

Jewel Thief

Jewel Thief

1965 / Colour / 186 minutes / Hindi

Director : Vijay Anand

Producer : Dev Anand

Cinematographer : V. Ratra

Editor : Vijay Anand

Music : Sachin Dev Burman

Cast : Ashok Kumar, Dev Anand, Vyjayanthimala, Tanuja Samarth, Helen

Synopsis : Vinay, an ordinary young man who finds himself constantly mistaken for a look alike jewel thief named Amar. Vinay works with the police to impersonate Amar and crack his crime ring. But it seems that Amar has decided to impersonate Vinay and soon their true identities are thoroughly muddled.

Director's Biography : Vijay Anand has had a career as an actor, screenwriter, editor, and producer, he will primarily be remembered as a director. He made his directorial debut in 1957 superhit Nau Do Gyarah. Some of Vijay's other successful movies as a director are Kala Bazar (1960), Guide (1965), Teesri Manzil (1966), Jewel Thief (1967), Johnny Mera Naam (1970), Tere Mere Sapne (1971), Ram Balram (1980) and Rajput (1982). Nearly all of these films were made by Navketan films. Notable exceptions were Teesri Manzil, which was produced by Nasir Hussain, Ram-Balram produced by Tony Juneja and Rajput produced by Mushir-Riaz.