

Centenary Tribute

Country : India

Sazaa

Sazaa

1951 / Black & White / 111 minutes / Hindi

Director : Fali Mistry

Producer : G.P. Sippy

Music : Sachin Dev Burman

Cast : Dev Anand, Nimmi, Shyama, K N Singh

Synopsis : While driving her car, Kamini (Shyama) runs over a young man (Dev Anand), who is seriously injured. She stops and takes him to a hospital, where it takes several weeks for him to recover; she visits him daily while he's unconscious. On his recovery, she is attracted to him and offers him employment as a manager in her dad's business. After being discharged from the hospital, he takes up the employment offer and is hired by Mothumal. Kamini invites him to dine at Mothumal's house, where he meets mute maidservant Asha (Nimmi). Both Asha and the young man (Dev Anand) are attracted to each other, which eventually brings changes to his life.

Director's Biography : Fali Mistry was born in 1919 in British India. He was a cinematographer and director, known for Guide (1965), Fakira (1976) and Jan Pahchan (1950). He was married to Shyama. He died in 1979 in India.