

Special Focus (Australia) : Contemporary

Country : Australia

Limbo

Limbo

2023 / Colour / 108 minutes / English

Director : Ivan Sen

Producer : Rachel Higgins

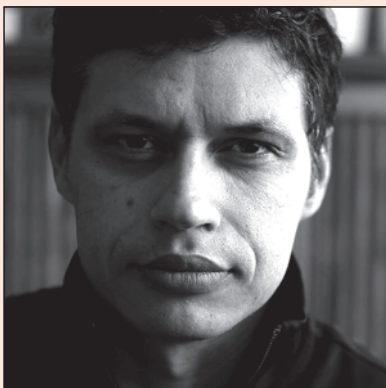

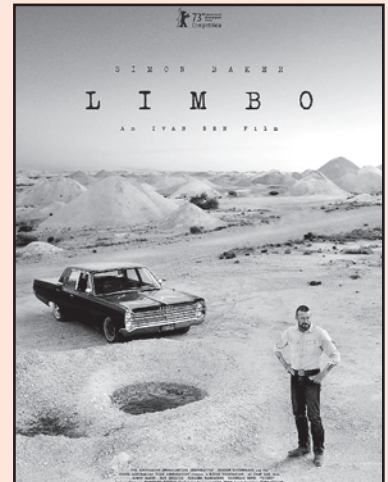

Cinematographer : Ivan Sen

Editor : Ivan Sen

Music : Ivan Sen

Cast : Simon Baker, Rob Collins, Natasha Wanganeen

Synopsis : Detective Travis Hurley (Simon Baker) travels to the isolated outback hamlet of Limbo to look into the unsolved death of a local Indigenous girl named Charlotte Hayes, twenty years ago. The investigator learns fresh information about the unresolved case from the family, witnesses, and conversations with the prime suspect's brother as details of the murder start to come to light.

Director's Biography : Ivan Sen is an Indigenous Australian filmmaker who is descended from the Gamilaroi and Bigambal language groups of northwest New South Wales and southern Queensland. He grew up in the small towns of Tamworth and Inverell. In addition, he has German, Croatian, and Hungarian ancestry. He worked as a sound recordist and camera operator in addition to studying photography at the Queensland College of Art in the early 1990s. In 1997, he also received a BA in direction from the Australian Film, Television and Radio School.