

Homage

Country : Italy

Vita da cani

A Dog's Life

1950 / Black & White / 108 minutes / Italian

Director : Mario Monicelli, Steno

Producer : Clemente Fracassi

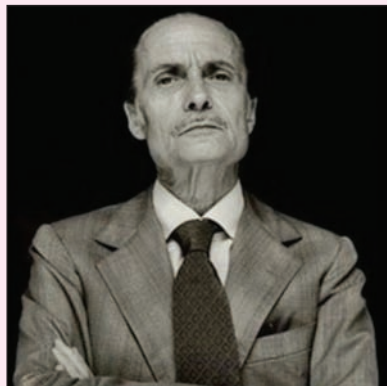

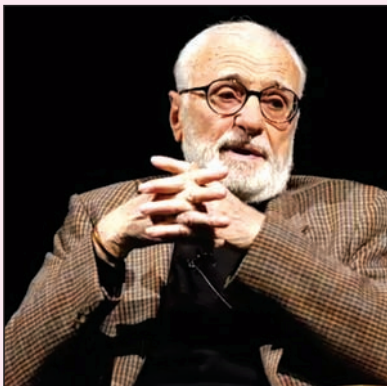

Cinematographer : Mario Bava

Editor : Mario Bonotti

Music : Nino Rota

Cast : Aldo Fabrizi, Gina Lollobrigida, Delia Scala, Tamara Lees

Synopsis : The story revolves around Nino, a young man from Rome who dreams of escaping his mundane life and making it big in the entertainment industry. His aspirations lead him to pursue a career in show business, but success does not come easy. Nino faces numerous challenges and setbacks in the competitive and often unforgiving world of entertainment. Complicating matters is the romantic entanglement between Nino and two women. This love triangle adds a layer of humour and complexity to the narrative as Nino navigates the ups and downs of both his personal and professional life.

Director's Biography : Mario Alberto Ettore Monicelli (16 May 1915 - 29 November 2010) was an Italian film director and screenwriter, one of the masters of the commedia all italiana (Italian style comedy). He was nominated six times for the Oscars, and received the Golden Lion for his career.

Director's Biography : Steno, the artistic name of Stefano Vanzina (19 January 1917 - 13 March 1988), was an Italian film director, screenwriter and cinematographer.